National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

September 30

The federal government recently passed legislation to create the annual National Day for Truth and Reconciliation (NDTR), a federal statutory holiday on September 30. This was done in response to one of the 94 Calls to Action from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission.

This day provides an opportunity for all Canadians to recognize and commemorate the legacy of residential schools, and commit to working for truth and reconciliation in the relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada.

Unlike other holidays, the NDTR is not just a day off from work. Instead it is very much a day when we encourage our whole Catholic community to take up the work of prayer and reflection, of learning and listening, of reaching out and reaching forward toward a new relationship of healing and reconciliation with Indigenous peoples of this land.

A public Mass of Reconciliation will be celebrated at St. Joseph's Basilica by Archbishop Smith on Thursday, September 30, 2021 at 7pm. This Mass will be livestreamed by the Archdiocese communication office.

We pray for all Canadians. May we open our minds and hearts to the truth that is unfolding regarding the treatment and deaths of children in residential schools. We pray to the Lord.

Let us embrace the spirit of this new national holiday and truly live our way into new relationships of truth, reconciliation, love and respect.

Therese of the Child Jesus

(Feast day October 1)

At the age of 14, on Christmas Eve in 1886, Therese had a conversion that transformed her life. From then on, her powerful energy and sensitive spirit were turned toward love, instead of keeping herself happy. At 15, she entered the Carmelite convent in Lisieux to give her whole life to God. She took the religious name Sister Therese of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face. After a long struggle with tuberculosis, she died on September 30, 1897, at the age of 24.

The world came to know Therese through her autobiography, "Story of a Soul". She described her life as a "little way of spiritual childhood. "What matters in life," she wrote, "is not great deeds, but great love." Therese believed in doing the ordinary, with extraordinary love.

She loved flowers and saw herself as the "little flower of Jesus," who gave glory to God by just being her beautiful little self among all the other flowers in God's garden.

Her inspiration and powerful presence from heaven touched many people very quickly. She was canonized by Pope Pius XI on May 17, 1925. Had she lived, she would have been only 52 years old when she was declared a Saint.

"My mission - to make God loved - will begin after my death. I will spend my heaven doing good on earth. I will let fall a shower of roses." Countless millions have been touched by her intercession and imitate her "little way." She has been acclaimed "the greatest saint of modern times."

Message from St. Vincent de Paul Society

The St. Vincent de Paul Society is blessed to receive ongoing support from parishioners; donations of food and personal care items are passed on to those in need. Our monthly food collection has been affected by Covid 19 and we appeal for your help to restock the pantry at Assumption Parish.

We are in need of:

Soups—mushroom, vegetable, tomato as well as ready to eat "Chunky" soups. Tins— fish, tomatoes, pasta sauce, vegetable (other than corn). Peanut butter, jams, jello pudding, pancake mix and syrup, Kraft dinner, cereal, coffee. Personal - Shampoo and dish soap.

We would also like to extend our sincere thanks to those parishioners who donated socks and underwear to SSVP for distribution at the Inner City Pastoral Ministry (ICPM) luncheons. Your gifts were greatly appreciated by those who received them.

Thank you

Volunteers urgently needed

A recent attempt to recruit volunteers to assist with furniture pickup and delivery to our clients has not been successful so far. Some of our volunteers are no longer able to help with furniture pick-up and delivery. There is a definite need and the time commitment is not extensive. If you or someone you know could help a few hours a month, please contact Hildegard at 780 466-1507 or Marcel at 780 466-0273 or any of our members.

We urge you to consider this very worthwhile cause.

It is with great sadness that we offer our condolences to the family of Jeanne Dlugos from Assumption Parish who passed away this week. Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her, may she rest in peace. Amen
