

Themes for the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings this week ask if we are as energetic in our spiritual lives as we are in acquiring wealth and the respect of others. In the first reading we are warned against cheating others and trampling on their rights. The psalm reminds us that God cares about the poor. In the second reading, Paul reminds us to pray for everyone, including those in authority. In the gospel Jesus tells the parable of the Dishonest Steward, who used his wits to gain favour.

*Using my influence for good * Pursuing the spiritual life with all our energy * Cheating * Rights of the poor*

Prolife prayers for September

September 18 Sunday

“Every child who, rather than being born, is condemned unjustly to being aborted, bears the face of Jesus Christ, bears the face of the Lord, who even before he was born, and then just after birth, experienced the world’s rejection. And every elderly person... even if he is ill or at the end of his days, bears the face of Christ. They cannot be discarded, as the ‘culture of waste’ suggests!”
 Pope Francis - Speech to Catholic healthcare professionals and gynecologists Sept. 20, 2013

September 25 Sunday

We pray that the worries and concerns we have about money may never be greater than the care we have for our neighbours, especially those in danger of abortion, euthanasia and assisted suicide.
