21st Sunday in Ordinary Time August 24, 2025

The 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time reminds us that God's love is for everyone. He calls people from all over the world to follow Him. It does not matter where we are from or what our past looks like. What matters is how we respond to His call.

This Sunday also teaches us that following God takes effort. The path is not always easy. We must make real choices and not wait too long. God wants us to stay strong, even when life is hard. On the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time, we are asked to keep moving forward with faith, trusting that God will guide us.

Welcoming Our Seminarian Intern:

Dear Parish Family,

I'm delighted to introduce you to Ian, our seminarian intern who will be joining our parishes starting this weekend. Ian has been studying for the priesthood in the Archdiocese of Edmonton for the past few years and hails from Tofield, Alberta.

Over the coming year, Ian will be living with me at the rectory and shadowing me in the daily life of our parishes. This is a wonderful opportunity for him to learn by observing how the priesthood is lived out in our community, and he will also gradually take on some responsibilities himself. This will help him build confidence and find his own rhythm in ministry.

I hope you'll join me in warmly welcoming Ian and giving him a chance to get to know all of you. He's looking forward to sharing a bit about himself and learning from these wonderful parishes as he grows in his vocation.

Thank you for your support and prayers for Ian during this formative year!
